DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's amendment filed on August 9, 2005 has been entered and made of record.

Applicant's arguments with regards to the amended claims have been considered, but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakayama et al. (U.S. Patent No. 4,703,186).

Regarding claim 1, Nakayama discloses an image scanner comprising:

an elongate body having an image reading surface for facing an original document (fig. 1);

a substrate provided in the body parallel to the image reading surface (fig. 2A, substrate 6C)

a line sensor extending in the body longitudinally thereof and mounted on the substrate in facing the relationship to the image reading surface for reading the document as the body moves along the document (fig. 2A, CCD 5);

a roller shaft rotatably supported in the body to extend longitudinally of the body (fig. 2A, roller 2);

at least one roller supported on the roller shaft for rotating therewith while rolling on the document (fig. 2A, roller 2);

a rotary encoder for detecting the rotation of said at least one roller for determining a scanning distance of the body, the rotary encoder including a rotary disk supported on a disc shaft; and a drive transmission for connecting said at least one roller to the rotary encoder; wherein the rotary disc is oriented parallel to the substrate and the image reading surface (fig. 8, col. 4, line 66 through col. 5 line 29).

Regarding claim 2, Nakayama discloses the image scanner according to claim 1, wherein the disc shaft extends perpendicularly to the roller shaft (figs. 2A & 8).

Regarding claim 4, Nakayama discloses the image scanner according to claim 1, wherein the rotary encoder also including optical detector (col. 5, lines 38-43)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
